For People who are interested in federal service, IHS, commissioned corps, or other branches of the federal agencies.

FOR FEDERAL SERVICE (GENERAL)- If you're looking at federal jobs, you can go to <http://www.usajobs.opm.gov/>, the main site for federal jobs. To job search, go to <http://jobsearch.usajobs.opm.gov/> and type in dietitian

FOR IHS- www.ihs.gov website to get an idea of what's available throughout the Indian Health Service (IHS). If searching for Dietitian positions go to the following link:

www.ihs.gov/JobCareerDevelop/CareerCenter/Vacancy/Search.cfm Once you get to this webpage you can limit your search to a job series, in your case Dietitian. A list of jobs will come up with varying degrees of access to vacancy announcements, information about the locations, etc.

If may also contact Jean Charles-Azure, RD, MPH our IHS Principal Nutrition Consultant jcharles@HQE.ihs.gov Her address: Indian Health Service, 801 Thompson Avenue #331, Rockville, MD 20852 . Her phone number: (301) 443-0576, FAX (301)594-6135

FOR THE USPHS and the Commissioned Corps-

1. To get information on the Public Health Service (PHS) in general and to see what the latest SG health priorities are, go to the following website- <http://www.surgeongeneral.gov/index.htm>
2. To get information about the Commissioned Corps of the PHS go to the following website- www.usphs.gov Go to the professions menu and click on the Dietitian category link. The "benefits summary" menu gives you links to information about different benefits and entitlements you receive as an officer. You can fill out an online request for an application packet from this website.
3. If you're sure you want to fully explore this as a career choice, then to get even more administrative information about the Corps, go to the Division of Commissioned Personnel website- <http://dcp.psc.gov/default.asp>

FOR THE USPHS and the Commissioned Corps-

1. To get information on the Public Health Service (PHS) in general go to the following website- <http://www.surgeongeneral.gov/sgoffice.htm>
2. To get information about the Commissioned Corps of the PHS go to the following website- www.usphs.gov. Go to the professions menu and click on the Health Services category link (this category available to public health professionals who aren't credentialed). The "benefits summary" menu gives you links to information about different benefits and entitlements you receive as an officer.
